If the effects as set forth by Supplier upon the Contract Price and/or the delivery time agreed upon are viewed as unreasonable by Customer, Customer will be entitled to terminate the Agreement without being under any obligation to pay damages.

4.3 Any contract extras and contract reductions shall be accepted by Customer only if agreed upon in writing with a person authorized for that purpose by Customer.

5. Place and Time of Performance and Delivery

5.1 Performance

5.1.1 Performance is to be carried out in the place and at the time agreed upon, in the absence of which place and time will be determined by Customer after prior consultations with Supplier.

5.2.1 Delivery of the Goods shall be 'DDP' (Incoterms 2000) to the address specified by Customer, unless otherwise agreed upon in writing.

5.3 Change of Delivery or Performance

5.3.1 Supplier shall only be authorized to perform partial deliveries of Goods or to carry out the Performance in parts, if such has been agreed upon with Customer and will not lead to an increase of Customer's costs. Customer is authorized to return a partial delivery or partial deliveries not agreed upon, at Supplier's expense and risk.

5.3.2 Delivery or Performance prior to the time agreed upon shall be performed only subject to Customer's prior written permission and shall not cause any changes to the term of payment or term of guarantee originally agreed upon.

5.4 Untimely performance

5.4.1 The delivery times and times of Performance are fixed. The simple exceeding thereof shall cause Supplier to be in default without any further written notice of default being required.

5.4.2 In the event of untimely performance Supplier shall owe a penalty of 0.5% of the Contract Price agreed upon, or in the event of partial deliveries the relevant part of the Contract Price agreed upon, for each day or part thereof that the Delivery or Performance is delayed. This penalty shall be forfeited without prior demand for payment in the event of non-performance. 5.4.3 If timely performance by Supplier is impossible or threatens to become impossible, it is obliged to notify Customer of this without delay.

5.4.4 In the event of Customer not being able to take receipt of the Supply at the time agreed upon due to force majeure, such as natural disasters, war or threat of war, riots, uprising, terrorist attacks, epidemics, quarantine measures, import or export bans or restrictions, strikes, government-imposed bans or restrictions, purchasers' shortcomings or delay in Delivery to purchasers, non-Performance or cancellation of orders by purchasers, Supplier shall at Customer's request postpone Delivery and/or Performance without any additional charge to Customer for a reasonable term, to be determined by Customer.

6. Packing and Storage

6.1 Supplier is obliged to pack and preserve all Goods to be supplied by it in such a manner that the Goods may be shipped and/or stored without damage for the term of at least 12 calendar months.

6.2 Supplier is obliged in accordance with Customer's instructions to provide the Goods with the required distinctive marks, texts or labels and shall ensure that such marks are clearly visible at the front or the back when stacked for transport.

6.3 If Supplier and Customer have agreed that the Goods are to be stored prior to Delivery, such storage shall take place in a place jointly to be determined by Supplier and Customer, unless expressly agreed otherwise.

6.4 Supplier is liable for any damage caused by inadequate packing and/or inadequate preservation, as well as for any damage caused to the Goods as a result of the storage of the Goods as referred to in the previous paragraph, regardless of the place where they are stored.

The cost of repair cannot be charged as contract extras by Supplier. The provisions of this article shall in that case apply in full. Rejection by Customer shall not lead to postponement of the terms of Delivery and/or Performance agreed upon.

7.1.5 Any testing/inspection/trials of the Supply by or on behalf of Customer does not imply any acknowledgement of the Supply meeting the issued guarantees or the Agreement.

7.1.6 If Supplier fails to meet its obligations under this article within the term agreed upon, Customer will be entitled to purchase the Supply from a third party, alternatively to take measures itself, or have measures taken by a third party at Supplier's expense and risk, without being under any obligation to pay damages to Supplier, and without prejudice to Customer's rights to demand compensation for damage sustained and costs incurred.

and mutual consultation decide on the procedure as well as the term within which the Acceptance test is to be carried out. Supplier shall not submit the Supply for the Acceptance test, if it knows or may within reason suspect that the Supply will not pass the Acceptance test successfully.

- 7.2.3 If the Acceptance test has not been successfully completed, Supplier shall within a term further to be agreed upon after the Acceptance Test make such amendments to the Supply free of charge, as will enable it to successfully pass the next Acceptance Test. Subsequently the Supply will once again be subjected to an Acceptance Test under the provisions of this article. All costs arising from this new Acceptance Test shall be at Supplier's expense.
- 7.2.4 If an Acceptance Test is unsuccessfully completed twice, Customer will be entitled to terminate the Agreement with Supplier, without being under any obligation to compensate Supplier for any damage and costs, and without prejudice to Customer's rights to demand compensation for damage sustained and costs incurred.

- 9.2 The Customer is authorized to rescind only in the case referred to in article 4.3.6 of these Terms and Conditions, and in such case only after payment to the Supplier of all amounts owed to the Supplier at that time, whether or not payable and including payments for all obligations entered into by the Supplier with third parties regarding the Performance at the moment of such rescission. The Customer waives any and all other rights it has or might have to rescind (ontbinden), terminate (opzeggen), or annul (vernietigen) the Agreement, be it in whole or partially and whether in court or extra-judicial, or to have the competent court change any of the effects of the agreement as stated in article 6:230 paragraph 2 DCC.

Consequently no such transfer, encumbrance or pledge will have any legal effect and therefore this article under Dutch law shall have property law consequences (goederenrechtelijk effect).
- 10.4 Passing of rights pursuant to article 6:251 DCC is excluded towards the Supplier with respect to rights of action (vorderingsrechten).

- 11.2 All disputes arising between the parties to this Agreement in connection therewith shall be settled through friendly consultations between the parties.
- 11.3 In case no settlement can be reached through these consultations, all disputes remaining or arising out of or in connection with the Agreement or any agreement entered into between the Supplier and the Customer related to or stemming from the Agreement shall be finally settled in accordance with the arbitration rules of the Netherlands Arbitration Institute. Unless the parties shall agree otherwise, the arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators. The place of arbitration shall be Rotterdam, the Netherlands.
